Female Contribution to Burmah. were baptized by the pastor; and when he left the place, in December, the church numbered ninety-five. In the same month, a committee was authorized to request the Rev. James M. Coley-to preach here for the ensuing winter. Brother Coley remained with the church till March, and devoted himself faithfully to its interests. By this time the meeting-house had become too strait to hold the congregation; and, during his stay, Brother Coley, with two others, was charged with the circulation of the first subscription-paper, the object being to enlarge the old meeting-house, or build a new one. (86) But little was accomplished, however, in raising money, at this early day; and no alterations were attempted in the old meeting-house, the church being generally dissatisfied...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
