Do You?

By Ruth Kinahan Walsh

Rosedog Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ruth Kinahan Walsh loved teaching her four children how to read and now wants to help your child learn how to read and recite the alphabet, too! In her first book, Do You? Ruth uses names for the fictional children from each letter in the alphabet. She wants your children to relate to the names of the fictional characters, perhaps experiencing excitement over knowing a real child with that name who may attend their school or live in their neighborhood. Ruth also wanted to introduce nouns that start with the letters of the alphabet and help expand a young child's vocabulary. Ruth wants your children to learn to read this book and then ask themselves, Do I do or feel these things? and be able to share their feelings and adventures with others. About the Author Ruth Kinahan Walsh was born, raised, and educated in Yonkers, New York. She met her husband there and they have four grown children and four grandchildren. Ruth worked in the Yonkers School System and enjoyed being a Den Mother for...
